Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 14 to Saturday July 18. 1713.

Westminster, July 16.

HER Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in Her Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, requiring their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to the Publick Bills following, viz.

An Act to raise Twelve hundred thousand Pounds for Publick Uses, by circulating a farther Sum in Exchequer Bills; and for enabling Her Majesty to raise Five hundred thousand Pounds on the Revenues appointed for Uses of Her Civil Government, to be applied for or towards Payment of such Debts and Arrears, as are owing to Her Servants, Trades-men, and others, as are therein mentioned.

An Act to enable such Officers and Soldiers as have been in Her Majesty's Service, during the late War, to exercise Trades, and for Officers to account with their Soldiers.

An Act for the better Regulating the Forces to be continued in Her Majesty's Service, and for the Payment of the said Forces, and of their Quarters.

An Act to vest in the Commissioners for building Fifty new Churches in and about London and Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof, as much of the Street, near the May-Pole in the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, as shall be sufficient to build one of the said Churches upon.

An Act for encouraging the Making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain.

An Act for Explaining the Acts for Licensing Hackney Chairs.

And to several private Bills.

After which Her Majesty made the following most Gracious Speech to both Houses:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Come now to put an End to this Session with great Satisfaction, and Return you all My hearty Thanks for the good Service you have done to the Publick.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I must particularly Thank you for the Supplies you have now given; I will take Care to Apply them, as far as they will Reach, to Satisfie the Services you have Voted.

I Hope, at the next Meeting, the Affair of Commerce will be so well Understood, that the Advantageous Conditions I have Obtained from France, will be made Effectual for the Benefit of Our Trade.

I cannot Part with so Good and so Loyal a House of Commons; without Expressing how Sensible I am of the Affection, Zeal, and Duty with which you have Behaved your selves; and I think My Self therefore Obliged to take Notice of those Remarkable Services you have Performed.

At your first Meeting you found a Method, without further Charge to My People, to Ease them of the heavy Load of more than Nine Millions; and the way of doing it may bring great Advantage to the Nation.

In this Session you have Enabled Me to be Just in Paying the Debts to My Servants.

And as you Furnished Supplies for Carrying on the War, so you have Strengthened My Hands in Obtaining a Peace.

Thus you have shewed Your selves the true Representatives of My Loyal Commons, by the Just Regard you have paid to the Good of Your Country, and My Honour, Honour: These Proceedings will, I doubt not, Preserve the Memory of this Parliament to Posterity.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

At My Coming to the Crown I found a War Prepared for Me. God has Blessed My Arms with many Victories, and at last has Enabled Me to make them Useful by a Safe and Honourable Peace.

I heartily Thank you for the Assistance you have given Me therein, and I Promise My Self that with your Concurrence, it will be Lasting.

To this End I Recommend it to you all, to make my Subjects truly Sensible what they Gain by the Peace, and that you will Endeavour to Dissipate those Groundless Jealousies which have been so Industriously Fomented amongst Us, that Our Unhappy Divisions may not Weaken, and in some sort Endanger the Advantages I have Obtained for My Kingdoms.

There are some (very few, I Hope) who will never be Satisfied with any Government; it is Necessary therefore that you shew your Love to Your Country, by Exerting your selves, to Obviate the Malice of the Ill-minded, and to Undeceive the Deluded.

Nothing can Establish Peace at Home, nothing can Recover the Disorders that have happened during so long a War, but a Steddy Adhering to the Constitution in Church and State.

Such as are True to these Principles are only to be Rely'd on; and as they have the best Title to My Favour, so you may Depend upon My having no Interest nor Aim, but your Advantage, and the Securing of our Religion and Liberty.

I Hope, for the Quiet of these Nations, and the Universal Good, that I shall, next Winter, Meet My Parliament, Resolved to Act upon the same Principles, with the same Prudence, and with such Vigour, as may Enable Me to Support the Liberties of Europe Abroad, and Reduce the Spirit of Faction at Home.

The following Address from the County of Lincoln, was Presented to Her Majesty by the Hon^ble Philip Bertie, Esq; being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentry of the County of Lincoln.

MADAM,

HAVING often had the Honour and Happiness of Congratulating Your Majesty for Your unparallel'd Successes in War, we with new Pleasure approach Your Sacred Throne, with Hearts full of Gratitude, for the natural Fruits, a Glorious Peace, and no less Glorious Prospect of Felicity, which Your Majesty's great Wisdom has (through all Difficulties) obtain'd for us.

Nor will Your Majesty's tender Care for Your People, suffer You to be content only with their present Happiness, without the Establishment of their future Security both in Church and State; which, Madam, You have fully effected, by fixing, for ever, the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, and preserving an inviolable Friendship with that Illustrious Family, to the great Joy of all Your Faithful and Loyal Subjects.

Nothing more is wanting to compleat Your Peoples Happiness, but the Cultivating the Arts Peace among themselves, and the long Enjoyment of the Glories of Your Majesty's Reign; which are not only the Object of our Hopes, but the Subject of our Prayers, who are Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Corporation of Barnstaple in the County of Devon, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Nicholas Hooper, Kt. Her Majesty's Serjeant at Law, and Richard Ackland, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by Mr. Robert Incledon, Mayor of the said Borough; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Houshold, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Town-Clerk; together with the Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, have lately done our selves the Honour to Address Your Royal Person, upon upon the delightful Proſpect of a Peace which You gave us; and upon that unparallel'd Inſtance of Your Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion, in laying before Your Parliament thoſe Honourable and Advantageous Terms which Your Majeſty had procured for the Eſtabliſhing ſo great a Bleſſing, the greateſt in the World, next to that of having ſo Glorious a Prince to Reign over us. We do now beg leave to approach Your Throne, with Hearts full of Joy, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of Your Pious Care and wiſe Councels, in finiſhing a Work ſo Glorious to Your ſelf, and ſo Beneficial to Your People and Allies.

Nor do we with leſs Satisfaction and Thankfulneſs acknowledge Your Majeſty's ſincere Regard and Concern, not only for our preſent but future Happineſs, by ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, by which our Religion and Liberty will be preſerved entire to lateſt Poſterity.

Tho' the Security of the Proteſtant Religion, and the Happineſs of Your Majeſty's Kingdoms, have been the great Ends Your Majeſty has conſtantly purſued in all Your Councels at home, and in all Your Victories and Treaties abroad; yet there have not been wanting diſaffected Perſons, Men of reſtleſs Spirits, who have endeavour'd to obſtruct Your good Deſigns, by ſpreading groundleſs Jealouſies and undutiful Reflections.

But how vain have been their Attempts, how fruitleſs their wicked Arts! Heaven has proſper'd Your pious Undertakings, has inſpired You with Wiſdom to diſcern, and with Courage and Reſolution to accompliſh, what was wanting to Your Peoples Happineſs.

Hence we are fully convinced, that there is no Enterprize too great for our Gracious Sovereign to undertake, and no Undertakings too difficult to be executed by her.

That Your Majeſty may long live to be the Ornament and Security of the Proteſtant Religion; That the Great GOD would continue to direct and bleſs Your Councels, and give You the Hearts of all Your Subjects, whoſe Intereſts You have made ſo entirely Your own; That the Bleſſing of the Peace-maker may be eternally Yours, ſhall ever be the hearty Prayers of us Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Ludgerſhall, in the County of Wilts, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Lieutenant General John Richmond Webb, and Major General Thomas Pearce, their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of Your ancient Borough of Ludgerſhall, among the reſt of Your faithful Subjects, moſt humbly beg leave to acknowledge the Happineſs we enjoy under Your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and more particularly to return our moſt humble Thanks for the Bleſſing of Peace, which Your Majeſty hath, after a long and expenſive War, and thro' ſo many Difficulties, obtained for Your People, whereby our Religion is ſecured, our Trade advanced, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion eſtabliſhed in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

And as we are ſenſible that nothing can add more to the Advantages we are to receive by this happy Peace, than Unanimity among our ſelves; ſo we humbly aſſure Your Sacred Majeſty, we will do our utmoſt Endeavours to promote it, one with another; and as a farther Mark of our Fidelity, we will have a particular regard to Elect ſuch Perſons for our Repreſentatives, as are ſteddy for the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſhed, loyal to Your Majeſty, and lovers of their Country.

That Your Majeſty's Reign may be long and flouriſhing, and that no groundleſs Jealouſies may any more appear to diſturb the Quiet of it, are the ſincere and conſtant Prayers of, Madam, Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of the Devizes, in the County of Wilts, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Child, Eſq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtice of the Peace, part of the Magiſtrates, Common Council, and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, and other loyal Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough.

PERMIT us, Dread Sovereign, to Congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty upon the concluſion of a Peace, honourable to Your Self, juſt to Your Allies, and beneficial to Your Subjects.

When we reflect upon the vaſt Expence of Treaſure, the great Effuſion of Blood, and other the tragical and diſmal Effects of the late tedious War, in which Your Majeſty, for juſt Reaſons, was pleas'd to engage. As we cannot but return our humble Thanks to Almighty GOD for a Peace; ſo we cannot but admire Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, and the Sagacity, Vigilance and unwearied Diligence of Your wiſe Miniſtry, in the ſpeedy accompliſhment of ſo great a Work.

A Work, to us ſtupendious and amazing, when we conſider the Oppoſition thereto, as well from Your Majeſty's Enemies abroad, as from the Fomenters of a reſtleſs Faction, Your more unnatural and greater Enemies at home.

That Your Majeſty may enjoy the Fruits of the Peace which with ſo much labour You have obtained obtained for us, in a long, happy and proſperous Reign over us: And that all Your Subjects may be truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings and Advantages they enjoy, under Your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Government, and ever loyally and obediently ſerve Your Majeſty, are and ever ſhall be the Endeavours and Prayers of, Madam, Your moſt loyal, moſt obedient, and moſt humble Subjects and Servants.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Madrid, July 3. N. S. Monſieur Aldobrandi, the Pope's Nuntio, by the interceſſion of France, has at laſt obtain'd leave to come to this Court, and is expected here in a ſhort time. Monſieur Orry is returned from Arragon, where he had been for Ten Days. Count Bergeick and he differ very much in their Opinions, relating to the Eſtabliſhment of the Finances. Monſieur Alburkerque, late Vice Roy of Mexico, who is arrived at a Village within a League of this Place, hath received Orders to ſtay there, and not come to Court. During his Government, an Indult was made againſt him, which it is ſaid will coſt him a conſiderable Sum of Money. The Prince de Santobueno having deferr'd his Journy to Peru, for ſome time longer, the Merchant Ships that waited to take him on board, will ſet Sail for Cartagena with the firſt fair Wind. The Count de Soupat is made Inſpector of the Walloon Guards. Letters from Catalonia bring an account, that on the firſt Inſtant a general Suſpenſion of Arms was to be proclaim'd there, and on the 15th, the Emperor's Forces are to evacuate that Province. Mareſchal Staremberg is to deliver up Terragona, and to retire towards Oſtalrick, from thence to Palamos, where the Troops under his Command are to embark. It was expected that he would likewiſe have given up Barcelona, but he has ſent notice to the Court, that he is not Maſter of that Place, which is Garriſon'd by the Catalans according to their Priviledges.

Hamburg, July 18. N. S. We are aſſured by Letters from Berlin of the 11th, that two Treaties on the Subject of the Sequeſtration of Holſtein and Pomerania have been ſigned there, and would immediately be put in Execution, if the Governor of Stetin could be prevailed on to receive the Pruſſian Troops into the Garriſon. The King of Pruſſia hath ſent to the Elector of Hanover, to deſire he will join with him in Interpoſing with the King of Denmark for the Evacuation of Holſtein. The Daniſh Privateers have again taken ſome Ships belonging to the King of Pruſſia's Subjects, and it is thought this Proceeding will incline his Majeſty to declare in Favour of Sweden and Holſtein, if Satisfaction be not made him very ſpeedily. We have received an Account, that the Congreſs at Swedt was to be open'd on the 19th, and that his Pruſſian Majeſty would be there in Perſon, accompanied by Monſieur Ilgen and Monſieur Dhona. Prince Menzikoff, Count Flemming, General Dewitz, with the Envoys of Muſcovy and Denmark were to aſſiſt at it on the part of the Allies. It is believed they will agree on a Neutrality in the Provinces of Sweden and Holſtein, that are ſituate in the Empire. Count Schonborn is ſet out for Berlin, to endeavour to obtain more Troops from that Court, for the Service of his Imperial Majeſty, and it is ſaid there is great probability of his ſucceeding in his Negotiation.

Hague, July 22. N. S. On the 19th, the Sieurs Buys and Van der Duſſen, and Count Kniphauſen, three of the Plenipotentiaries of this State at the Congreſs at Utrecht, came from thence, and have ſince had ſeveral Conferences with the States their Maſters, and with the Earl of Strafford, upon the Subject of the Treaty of Peace between Spain and this State, as likewiſe on the Subject of Trade in the Spaniſh Netherlands, for the Regulation of which, Commiſſioners are arrived at Utrecht from France. The Duke d'Oſſuna, the Marquis de Monteleone, and others of the Spaniſh Nobility, who came hither to be preſent at the Earl of Strafford's Ball on the 18th, are return'd to Utrecht. Count Maffei, Miniſter of the Duke of Savoy, is arrived here in his way to Great Britain, where he is going to reſide with the Character of Envoy from his Royal Highneſs.

Gand, July 22. N. S. On the 20th Major-General Sabine received certain Information that a Conſpiracy was form'd by ſeveral Soldiers of this Garriſon to raiſe a Rebellion, and that they had bound themſelves under an Oath to execute their Deſigns. Whereupon he ſent Directions to Brigadier Sutton, to march hither with the whole Body of Dragoons under his Command; which he did with ſo much diligence, that tho' he received theſe Orders but at Four in the Afternoon, he arrived here at Three the next Morning. At the ſame time all the Horſe and Berner's Regiment of Foot were under Arms, and by the prudent Care of Major-General Sabine ſuch a Diſpoſition was made, that the Ringleaders were ſeized as they were drawing out their Men, and ſeven of the Chief of them were, upon full Evidence, condemn'd and put to Death. Of which number was the Perſon who aſſumed the Name of Marlborough, and another who called himſelf Cadogan. As ſoon as the Execution was over, the Garriſon marched round the dead Bodies, and afterwards a general Pardon was declared at the Head of every Regiment, which has effectually prevented any further Miſchief. The Diligence and Reſolution of the Officers, eſpecially Brigadiers Sutton and Panton, contributed very much to the quelling this Conſpiracy. The Behaviour of the Dragoons, as well Her Majeſty's Subjects as Foreigners, is likewiſe very much to be commended; neither were the Horſe of the Garriſon in any thing wanting, to ſhew their Zeal and Readineſs for Her Majeſty's Service.

Theſe are to give Notice, That on Wedneſday the 29th Inſtant, by Order of Her Majeſty's Poſt-maſter General, will be expoſed to Sale by the Candle at Lloyd's Coffee-Houſe in Lombard-ſtreet, the Expedition and Mercury Packet-Boats, now lying againſt the Red-Houſe at Deptford, with their Furniture of Guns and other Stores, as ſpecified in their reſpective Inventories, which are to be ſeen on Board the ſaid Veſſels, at the General Poſt-Office, and at the Place of Sale.

This is to give Notice, that a Letter without a Date, with a Copy of another formerly wrote, was received by the Lord High Treaſurer, but the former Letter did not come to his Hands; the Gentleman is deſired to go on with what he propoſes, or to ſend word how a Letter may be directed to him.

This is to give Notice, That ſeveral Letters ſigned O. S. and directed to the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer, have been received by the Penny-Poſt, and that the Gentleman is deſired to continue to write as formerly.

The Commiſſioners appointed to take in Tickets of the Lotteries, No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3, Anno 1712, and deliver out Orders in lieu thereof, give notice, That on Monday the 20th of July Inſtant, at 9 in the Forenoon, they will deliver out Orders for all Tickets in any of the ſaid three Lotteries which have been entred with them for Orders at any time on or before the 30th Day of April laſt paſt, and that they will continue the Work of giving out Orders for and in lieu of the Tickets ſo entred daily and every Day, till Saturday the 25th Inſtant inclusive: Therefore all Perſons having Tickets by them in any of the ſaid three Lotteries, or in the Claſs Lottery for the Year 1712, not yet entred for Orders, or not having called for their Orders in the ſaid Claſs Lottery, for Tickets entred to the 31ſt of May laſt, are deſired to haſten the Entry of their ſaid Tickets, and calling for their ſaid Orders, before the Work of delivering out theſe Orders begins, becauſe that Work being begun it will not admit of any other Buſineſs to interfere in that Week.
